Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule G, Part I, Line 2 - Fundraising Expenses	Telemarketer income reflected on this schedule ONLY shows the income related to this year and not the ongoing multi-year income generated by the campaign. As a result, this schedule significantly understates the income generated from the expenses shown. Companies described above as 'fundraising counsel' provide advice and consulting regarding solicitation of contributions but do not engage in direct solicitations on WWF's behalf. As such, it is not possible to report receipts resulting directly from the services of such companies, whose advice and counsel is often applied to a broad variety of fundraising activities.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, line 1a	The first box is checked for charter travel. The other box is checked for gross-up payments, which were provided on one relocation expense for a new hire and on small performance recognitions during the year.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, line 3	Compensation is based on performance and is determined by committee of the Board in consultation with an independent and highly-experienced outside compensation expert. The independent compensation expert advises the Committee on what is reasonable compensation for the demands of the role, based on exhaustive analysis of compensation at organizations of similar size, scope and reach. WWF makes compensation determinations within these guideposts.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, line 4b	Supplemental Non-qualified retirement plan WWF has both 457(b) and 457(f) supplemental nonqualified retirement plans. The 457(b) plan is open to participation by employees at the level of Vice President and above. Amounts contributed by the organization are included in Part II, Column C. The 457(f) plan, which is specifically designed and authorized for nonprofits and governments to retain executive talent, was adopted by WWF in 2013. As with other organizations that have established such deferred compensation plans, the goal is to ensure retention, at critical moments, of key leaders who would be difficult, if not impossible, to replace. Amounts deferred under this plan are subject to vesting periods established by terms of awards. Payments of 457(f) benefits are contingent on completion of future services and are subject to substantial risk of forfeiture. Deferral amounts are fixed and not contingent on organizational net earnings or other financial performance metrics. Earnings are allocated to deferrals with reference to the annual return percentage (positive or negative) of WWF's Board Designated Reserves investment portfolio for the prior fiscal year. In calendar year 2018, the account for Marcia Marsh vested and paid out $416,728, which is included in Part II, Column B (iii) and Column F, and reported as taxable income on the employee's W-2. As reflected in Part II, Column F, 95% of the amount paid out in 2018 was previously reported as deferred compensation on prior form 990 tax filings. WWF also has a 403(b) qualified retirement plan for all employees, with a 3% match at one year of employment and a 6% contribution at 2 years of employment, with immediate vesting of all employer match and contribution payments.
